

NTW #3

This sign means:

Trucks should be aware that there is a dip in the road

A. ahead.

You should check your brakes. The road ahead goes down

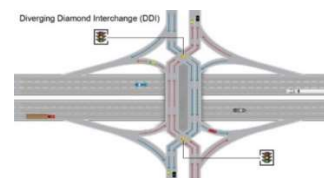

B. a steep hill.

Safety benefits of diverging diamond interchanges include:

A. Wrong way entry to ramps is easier.

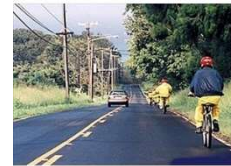

B. Fewer conflict points.

When passing a bicyclist the minimum distance you must keep between your vehicle and the bicycle is:

A. 3 feet.

B. 6 feet.

This sign means:

Added lane, traffic may enter but merging is not

A. necessary.

B. Driver in right lane must exit at the next intersection.

Unless different limits are posted, the speed limit for urban (residential) areas is:

A. 25 MPH

B. 30 MPH

When you see this sign, you may enter to go less than one block.

A. False.

B. True.

Which of the following statements is true about wearing safety belts?

Your chances of being killed or injured are greater if you

A. DO NOT wear a safety belt.

In vehicles with an automatic shoulder belt it is not

B necessary to wear the lap belt.

Solid white lines on a road are meant to:

A. Discourage lane changing.

B. Not allow pedestrians to cross at that location.

Parking is not allowed:

A. Beside a yellow painted curb.

B. Within 10 feet of a fire hydrant.

C. All of these answers are correct.

A green road sign:

A. Guides and informs motorists.

B. Prohibits and commands the driver.

To reduce the risk of carbon monoxide poisoning and possibly death.

Make sure your vehicle's exhaust system does not leak or

A. is blocked.

Avoid idling a vehicle in a garage even with the garage

B. door open.

C. All of these answers are correct.

This sign means:

A. Drive cautiously, a construction flag person is ahead.

B. Be prepared to turn left at the intersection ahead.

A yellow traffic light means:

- The traffic signal is changing from green to red. Use
- A. caution proceeding through the intersection.
 - B. You should slam on your brakes.

While waiting to turn:

- A. signal at least 50 feet before the turn.
- B. keep your wheels straight while waiting to turn.

This sign means:

- A. Divided highway ends.
- B. Lane ends, merge left.

Practice driving is illegal without a valid instruction permit in your possession.

- A. False.
- B. True.

What does this sign mean?

- This sign warns of a railroad crossing ahead. Slow down
- A. and look carefully for trains.

- B. Be prepared to accelerate if a train is approaching the crossing ahead.

When you are facing this sign, all vehicles must yield to you.

- A. True.
- B. False.

When changing lanes you must:

- Signal, check mirrors, and turn your head in the direction
- A. you are moving to check your "blind spot".
 - B. Slow your speed below the speed of the other traffic.

While driving, when is it legal to send or receive an electronic message with a cell phone?

- A. When stopped at a traffic light
- B. To obtain emergency assistance

A flashing yellow light means:

- A. Proceed through the intersection with caution.
You do not have to look for traffic at the intersection
- B. ahead.

This symbol means:

- A. by the sign.
You should not take a certain course of action indicated

- B. sign.
That you must take the course of action indicated by the

When driving a vehicle equipped with an airbag:

- A. It is not necessary to wear safety belts.

- B. driver and the steering wheel.
Try to have a least ten (10) inches of space between the

When the turn arrow is red:

- A. Oncoming traffic must yield to you.

- B. You must wait for a green arrow before turning left.

When driving through a highway work zone, you must:

- A. reduce your speed to the posted work zone speed limit.
- B. follow the flag person's directions, if one is present.

- .C All of these answers are correct.

When encountering a transit bus attempting to merge from a bus stop or shoulder, a driver in the right traffic lane must:

- A. Drive faster to get around the bus.
- B. Yield the right of way to the bus.

Which of the following statements is true about railroad crossings?

- Vehicle/train collisions almost always occur when the
- A. driver is in an unfamiliar area.
 - B. Certain buses and trucks are required to stop at all railroad crossings. Do not cross the center of the road to pass.
- Stopping or parking on an interstate freeway:
- A. Is illegal, except in an emergency.

- B. Is prohibited only if "No Parking" signs are posted.
-

You must have your headlights on:

- A. during periods of rain, snow, fog.
- B. from sunset to sunrise.
- C. when you cannot see the road ahead of you clearly for a distance of at least 500 feet.
- D. All of these situations require headlight use.

When driving on a freeway, if an emergency vehicle approaches you from behind with red lights flashing and siren sounding, you should:

- A. Stop in the lane you are in.
- B. Move to the closest side of the road and stop.

When driving through a highway work zone, you should:
Reduce your speed and adjust lane position away from

- A workers.
- B. Maintain lane position.

Because of its large size, a truck:

- A. All of these answers are correct.
- B. takes longer to pass than a car.
- C. has blind spots to the front, sides, and rear of the vehicle.

